Manager's moment...

Good morning everyone and welcome to market day!! It's great to have you all back after the long weekends, it was a little bare in the shed with so many of you absent – I hope it was nothing I said!!!

So, what's happening this week? Well not too much today but next week is busy, busy busy! There is an Eat Drink Blog Conference in Canberra next Saturday and we are hosting approximately 80 food bloggers from all around Australia who will spend a couple of hours at the market talking with stallholders and sampling produce. They will all receive a $10 gift card to encourage them to spend money during their visit. Our normal monthly cooking demo will also take place for their benefit and provide further opportunity to sample our local produce. Hopefully they will be suitably impressed and write great stories which will hit the social network airwaves Australia wide.

Can we please remember to extend courtesy and consideration to our fellow stallholders when parking our vehicles and setting up on a Saturday morning? There is a lot of people and vehicle movement in the shed prior to 7.00 am and a little patience and understanding goes a long way. Make sure neither your vehicle nor tables creep over into your neighbours' site, this can be frustrating especially for those who are short on space already. Thank you in advance for your co-operation.

That's all I've got for this week....have a good one – Adrienne ☺

Need help??

Many young travellers come to Australia from overseas looking for general farm work or fruit picking. There is a website where you can both advertise and seek seasonal helpers and these are the links to the websites:

The contact is: rahul@workingholidayjobs.com.au

ATTENTION!! ATTENTION!!

Christmas is coming.... Yes or NO??

Update on the Twilight Market planned for the 22 December 2015 from 2.00 – 6.00pm.

So far we have approximately 33 stallholders who have confirmed they will be attending. To make it worthwhile we really need at least a minimum of 40 – 50 attendees so, I know it's still a little early (be careful....it will be here before we know it!!) please be sure to let me know your intentions, preferably by email.

I would suggest a commitment either way by no later than Saturday 31 October – Thank you!

Our last market for the year will be on 19 December 2015 and we will return on 16 January 2016 this is a 3 week break and your produce does not stop growing...

Congratulations to...

Lana & Jeff – Treetops Batlow Pty Ltd (site 39/40) who have just welcomed to the family a healthy bouncing baby boy, best wishes from everyone at CRFM.
