Manager's moment...

Good morning everyone and welcome to market day!! I hope you all had a good week?

Update on stallholders: Luke – Brookland Potatoes is back for another season, as is Jane – Goulburn Garlic, Owen – Loriendale Orchard has also returned, and we welcome Wayne – Uncle Juan's who joins those in the new outside area. Christine – Windview Saffron has finished for this year but will return in May and also Joelle – La Truffiere is out of product.

Many thanks to the generous folks listed below who donated for last week's cooking demo:

Boxgum Grazing - Bacon

Smith's Free Range - Eggs

Auddin's Produce – Lemon/Oranges

Alpine Nuts- Walnuts

Hillside Pastured - Chicken

Four Bee Meats - Ham hock

Treetops (Rhonda) - Apples

Bryan Loader - Cheese

La Barre - Balsamic with Pomegranate

South Coast Cheese - Milk & Cream

Windellama Organics - Oak leaf lettuce

Wins Creek Honey - Honey Mead

Thank you for your co-operation, and also apologies for the inconvenience caused by the Gala Ball last week, the old shed scrubbed up really well and I did send some photos for those who may have been interested. It was great that so many stallholders were able to be involved either with tasting stations, corporate gifts or main menu items: Tall Paul, Shingle Hill Estate, Shoalhaven Mushrooms, Siam Siam, Four Bee Meats, Holbrook Paddock Eggs, Windellama Organics, Homeleigh Grove,

Fine Terrines & Pates, Doms Woodfired Bread, Small Cow Farm, Torry Hills Orchard and Wagonga Coffee, I know there were others who offered but couldn't be accommodated, and some who provided for corporate gifts but weren't mentioned on the program. I think overall, the publicity for the market was fantastic!!

The best part of the night was the public announcement that the Rotary Club of Hall will again donate $50,000 to the Snowy Hydro Southcare Helicopter service sometime during this financial year, re-enforcing why the market is such a great community project.

The shade cloth will be replaced after Summernats and prior to our first market back on 16 January, it was considered pointless doing it before as the big trucks burn holes in it from their exhausts.

I seem to have taken up rather a lot of space this week, so that's enough from me, have a good one – Adrienne ☺

Congratulations...

A little bird whispered to me that this Saturday marks the 10 year anniversary of John & Justine – Ando Organics attendance at the market, big milestone, well done!!!

Reminder - Stallholder Xmas Party...

Our annual Xmas /end of year party will be NEXT WEEK!! Please advise me if you will be attending (and how many) so I can provide numbers for catering purposes. If you can all let me know today, I'll try to see everyone this morning.

Reminder

At the end of the market next week, or after the Twilight one if you are attending, please be sure to remove all your items from the shed ready for the Summernats takeover.

Corner Stall Fee Increase...

As from 16 January 2016 which is our first market back after the Xmas break, fees for ALL corner sites will increase by $5 per week. If this means you wish to move to another area, please let me know and I'll do my best to accommodate your request, however please also realise this might take a while to organise.
