Manager's moment...

Good morning everyone and welcome to market day!!
Great to see that spring has finally arrived and the early starts will be warmer.....

A huge thank you to the following folks who donated produce for the cooking demo last week:

Hillside Pastured Farm- chicken legs

Auddino's Produce - lemons

Randall Organic Rice - rice

La Barre Olives - olive oil

Moruya Seafood - prawns

Bread Nerds- bread

Kurrajong Country Beef - mince

South Coast Cheese - milk

Four Bee Meats - ham

Melissa Pure Fresh Honey- radishes

Wollondilly Produce - herbs & veg

As always, Ivonne and the team did a great job and cooked some mouth-watering dishes with Fathers' Day in mind.

You may have noticed that John Dicerbo has been absent for a few weeks. He's had a bad dose of pneumonia but according to Jo he is now on the mend and hoping to be back soon. I will send a card on our behalf, please let me know if you wish to sign, it's hard for me to get round to everyone on a Saturday but I'll do my best.

If you store items in the containers alongside the main shed, please ensure when you pack them away you do so as neatly as possible – we are just about at capacity and the free space is minimal, so efficient packing is a must!!!

This week the kitchen will be out again for the Slow Food Soup Kitchen who will be joining us for the morning offering soups of various flavours...enjoy!

That's it from me, have a good one – Adrienne ☺

ATTENTION!! ATTENTION!!

Christmas is coming..... Yes or NO??

After consulting with EPIC I am now able to advise that we can definitely hold a Twilight Market however, the site is handed over to Summernats on 23 December so it would be much less complicated to have our market on 22 December 2015 from 2.00 – 6.00pm. Some of you have already advised me that you are interested in attending, but you now need to confirm this new date still works for you and those of you who have not responded, can you please do so; this won't happen/work without the numbers.

Please let me know, preferably by email if possible, whether you are able/wish to attend. I would suggest a commitment either way by no later than Saturday 31 October.

Our last market for the year will be on 19 December 2015 and we will return on 16 January 2016 this is a 3 week break and your produce does not stop growing...

Stall Fees 2015/16

Our Market Rules indicate that stallholder fees will be reviewed annually, so please note that as from 1 October 2015 the fees will be amended as follows:

Weekly attendance $70

Fortnightly attendance $90

Monthly attendance $100

Agency fees will increase by $10 per agent as follows:

1 x agent = $50, 2 x agent = $100, 3 x agent = $150

Advertising, power and storage will remain the same.

Please let Adrienne know if you plan to drop any of your agents'.
