Manager's moment...

Good morning everyone and welcome to market day!!
So much news today I don't know where to start...

Update on stallholders: Luke-Brookland Potatoes is on a break until maybe December due to shortage of produce and Gavin-Gooloo Creek Wildflowers is finished for this season. We welcome back Don Smith-Donald Smith Horticulture, Geoff & Marilyn Cartwright-Gemmpak and Pa La Mon, and new to the market for the first time this week David Woolley-Bolong River Produce who sells Flannel Flowers and unique berries, you'll find him outside in the horticulture area, be sure to say Hi and make them all welcome.

Food Bloggers: Just a reminder we are hosting 80 food bloggers as part of the Eat, Drink Food Bloggers conference this week and there will also be a cooking demo with Ivonne and the team. The bloggers have a $10 gift card to spend so be sure to see me and get your cash back!

Pricing: It is not only part of our Market rules but also an ACT Legislative requirement that everyone display prices on their product/stalls. It was noted at our last committee meeting that we seem to have dropped the ball on this so the compliance team will be checking pricing over the next few weeks – forewarned is forearmed!!!

Storage: It was only a couple of weeks ago that I mentioned this before so I'm really disappointed that I have to bring it up again ☹️ The storage containers are at capacity, everything WILL fit in provided you ALL stack considerately and effectively. If you are first in make sure you go right to the back and stack as neat and tidy as you can to leave room for the others that follow. Last week 2 stallholders had to repack and reorganise both containers to enable everyone to store their items. Thank you to both of those stallholders however, not fair and not acceptable!!

That's it, enough from me, have a good one – Adrienne ☺️

Need help??

Many young travellers come to Australia from overseas looking for general farm work or fruit picking. There is a website where you can both advertise and seek seasonal helpers and these are the links to the websites:

The contact is: rahul@workingholidayjobs.com.au

Christmas is coming..... Yes we are!!

Update on the Twilight Market planned for the 22 December 2015 from 2.00 – 6.00pm.

So far we have approximately 35 stallholders who have confirmed they will be attending. I'm aware that some of you still have not decided or committed so I will do a final check of numbers on Saturday 31 October, but at this stage we will go ahead.

Congratulations to...

James and Laura Fanning – Teachers Pet (Site no 52a) who welcomed a baby boy last week. Mum and Bub doing well and Dad was suffering from lack of sleep! Congratulations from everyone at CRFM.

CRFM Signage Reminder

Please be sure to use the Producer (Green Chook), Agent (Orange Chook) and Organic/Biodynamic (Beetroot Chook) on applicable items so our customers know your product.

Gala Event

On Friday 4th December Snowy Hydro Southcare are holding their annual Gala Ball in the Market sheds, this means on that day no-one can set up and we will not have access to the shed until 2.00am on the Saturday morning. Yes, it will be inconvenient but think outside the box...it will raise a lot of money for a very worthy cause – just ask Mitch Gatenby (Tall Paul son).
