Manager's moment...

Good morning everyone and welcome to market day!!

Well after 3 months of doing the job it seems that I've lost the plot already.... Anyone notice my deliberate error in the newsletter last week?? No?? Bloody marvellous, that means I got away with it! What you should have noticed is that despite what I said, there was no kitchen and no soup ☹ Not to worry, take 2, the kitchen will be out this week and the Slow Food Soup Kitchen will be offering soups of different varieties for your pleasure ☺

Please join me in welcoming back after a long absence in site No 56 Wallaroo Wines and their new marketing manager Roger Ta. You may remember that Megan had a nasty car accident and was unable to attend the market, she now has a new job that allows her to sit most of the time and with no heavy lifting. Also back with us in the outside area is Gavin from Gooloo Creek Wildflowers, be sure to say Hi.

Next Saturday (26th) is our turn on the ABC 666 morning show with Greg Baylis so anything you would like to showcase, please let me know as I have to prepare notes during the week.

That's it from me, have a good one – Adrienne ☺

Winners.....

Congratulations to Richard & Liz Dowling from Franklin Road Preserves who have just been awarded a Silver medal for their Bread & Butter Cucumbers in The Royal Sydney Fine Food Show – 2015.

Also Peter & Caroline O'Clery from Homeleigh Grove entered their Olive oils in both the Royal Sydney Fine Food Show – 2015 and also the Australian National Olive Oil Competition and won 5 Silver medals all up.

Great job and well done!!!

ATTENTION!! ATTENTION!!

Christmas is coming..... Yes or NO??

After consulting with EPIC I am now able to advise that we can definitely hold a Twilight Market however, the site is handed over to Summernats on 23 December so it would be much less complicated to have our market on 22 December 2015 from 2.00 – 6.00pm. Some of you have already advised me that you are interested in attending, but you now need to confirm this new date still works for you and those of you who have not responded, can you please do so; this won't happen/work without the numbers.

Please let me know, preferably by email if possible, whether you are able/wish to attend. I would suggest a commitment either way by no later than Saturday 31 October.

Our last market for the year will be on 19 December 2015 and we will return on 16 January 2016 this is a 3 week break and your produce does not stop growing...

Stall Fees 2015/16

Our Market Rules indicate that stallholder fees will be reviewed annually, so please note that as from 1 October 2015 the fees will be amended as follows:

Weekly attendance $70
Fortnightly attendance $90
Monthly attendance $100

Agency fees will increase by $10 per agent as follows:
1 x agent = $50, 2 x agent = $100, 3 x agent = $150

Advertising, power and storage will remain the same.

Please let Adrienne know if you plan to drop any of your agents'.
