21 January 2017 - Proudly Authentic

Manager's moment...

Good morning everyone and welcome to market day!!

After sweltering through the extended heat wave during the week, we can look forward to a more temperate 31 today. For those of you who enjoy the luxury of air conditioning, spare a thought for those of us who don't ☺

Make sure you stock up today for your Australia Day feast on 26 January – apparently it's all about lamb on the BBQ; whatever you choose, enjoy celebrating this amazing country we live in with all its beauty and extremities.

Whilst we have stallholders away on extended leave after Xmas, please feel free to stretch your stall and fill some of the gaps if you have a vacant site next to you. Customers have a habit of cutting through an empty space, which can sometimes mean stepping over wires and boxes etc. with the potential of an accident waiting to happen; we don't want that!

Stallholder update: Welcome back for another season: Dominic – Torcaso Produce, and returning from their Xmas break Warwick & Julie Morris, Food 4 You and Tall Paul's Oysters.

That's it from me, keeping it short again this week, have a good one ☺

Scheduled breaks for 2017...

The market will be closed on the following dates during the year:

Royal Canberra Show – 25 February 2017

National Folk Festival – 15 April 2017

Work Wanted...

If anyone is looking for some assistance on Saturday's, I have been approached by Alice McCarthy; she can be contacted by phone on: 0424 375 998 or email Alice.mcc@internode.on.net

If anyone wishes to advertise for assistance/positions vacant on the CRFM website, please let me know.

Congratulations...

From all of us at CRFM, to Erhan (Dilliro Vegetables) and his lovely wife, on the birth of their daughter Suhan (meaning beautiful). This is their 5th gift of nature, but who's counting???

Specials wanted! ...

The time has come to start sending in any specials for the week you may have; as we roll out the CRFM app to customers over the coming weeks, we need to demonstrate real information as it will appear on a regular weekly basis.

Please email to me by Thursday @ 12.00 midday each week to: market.manager@crfm.com.au If you want the special price to apply from a specific time as opposed to the whole duration of the market, please be sure to mention this too. Thanks for your assistance.

A Reminder...

The authenticity of this market will not be compromised under any circumstance; it's our point of difference from the others, and makes us unique. A recent farm inspection proved that a long standing stallholder was again, selling "rogue" product at CRFM resulting in immediate and permanent suspension.

If you don't grow it, don't bring it, if it's not approved, don't do it. This market has been voted in the top 10 around Australia and continues to evolve; we should all be proud of the achievement and ensure it remains real. Disregarding the rules is not optional.

If you think someone is not adhering to the rules/guidelines, and possibly challenging the authenticity of the market, you should speak with either myself or any other member of the committee.
