Manager's moment...

Good morning everyone and welcome to market day!!

Firstly, let me say a big thank you to Nynka for taking charge today and allowing me a day off, she will also be heading down to the ABC to catch up with Greg Baylis.

It seems there is some confusion with the new stall fees so I'll try to explain.... The basic stall fee per week is $70 and for now this is not going to change, but on top of this you then pay $5 for the advertising levy and any other extras such as storage and power so, if you are a weekly stallholder nothing will change for you - $70+$5 = $75 plus power/storage/agents if applicable. Please discuss with myself or Nynka if you are still unsure as they will take effect from the next market.

Congratulations this week to Warrick and Julie Morris who celebrated their 30th (Pearl) wedding anniversary, a huge milestone and I hope you both celebrated in style with family and friends.

That's it from me, see you all next week – Adrienne ☺

Christmas is coming..... Yes or NO??

Update on the Twilight Market planned for the 22 December 2015 from 2.00 – 6.00pm.

So far we have approximately 25 stallholders who have confirmed they will be attending. To make it worthwhile we really need at least a minimum of 40 – 50 attendees so, I know it's still a little early (be careful....it will be here before we know it!!) please be sure to let me know your intentions, preferably by email.

I would suggest a commitment either way by no later than Saturday 31 October – Thank you!

Our last market for the year will be on 19 December 2015 and we will return on 16 January 2016 this is a 3 week break and your produce does not stop growing...

Sad news....

Very sorry to be the bearer of sad news, Dennis Rowe (Robyn Rowe Chocolates) stallholder and one of the market family passed away yesterday. I will send a card on behalf of RCH and CRFM.

From next week!!!! Stall Fees 2015/16

Please remember to adjust your bank direct credit if necessary to reflect the fee increase as from next week.
